Facilitators:

Bud Weightman is an international management consultant involved with management and technical systems for over 30 years. As President of QSI, Bud is involved with the industry committees responsible for emerging requirements, including: revision of API Spec. Q1 from the 8th Edition to the 9th Edition; creation of API Spec. Q2; the API Task Group for welding; harmonization of API product specification requirements; and lead auditor for the accreditation of SEMS Audit Providers through the Center for Offshore Safety. Bud's experience includes working with the ISO 9000, ISO 14000, OHSAS 18000 management systems, and with industry-specific certification schemes such as API Q1, AS9100, and ASME systems, to name a few. For more information about Bud's profile click here.

*This Q1 course may be facilitated by another RABQSA/IRCA Lead Auditor, approved by the API. Other course instructors include Randy Heydenburg or Dana Harris.
