Course Facilitator

Bud Weightman is an international consultant involved with management and technical systems for over 40 years. As President of QSI, Bud is involved with API subcommittees responsible for: reviewing and revising API Spec. Q1; the creation and revisions of API Spec. Q2 (SC18), including subcommittee (SC20) for Supply Chain specifications/standards. Bud has also chaired the API Task Group for welding (harmonization of API product specification requirements) and the task group for API Std 20M (Qualification of Suppliers of Machining Services for Use in the Petroleum and Natural Gas Industries). Bud has also served as a lead auditor for the accreditation of SEMS Audit Providers through the Center for Offshore Safety. Bud's experience includes working with various ISO management systems, and with industry-specific certification schemes such as API Q1/Q2, AS9100, and ASME systems. He also maintains several international lead audit certifications, including the Exemplar Global Skills Examiner certification.

Dana Harris is certified by ASQ, as a CQA, and by Exemplar Global, as a Principal Auditor and Certified Management System Lead Specialist. Dana is currently a Senior Auditor and has spent the last 10 years implementing quality management systems according to API Spec Q1 and API product specifications.
