Growing U.S. oil and natural gas development has already added some $1,200 to the average household income. Safely producing natural gas in Western Maryland could pump tens of millions in additional dollars into our state economy. That’s great news for all of Maryland.

*Source: IHS Study, America’s New Energy Future: The Unconventional Oil and Gas Revolution and the US Economy, September 2013

Paid for by the American Petroleum Institute

Learn more at NaturalGasSolution.org